But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word." Acts 6:4

It has been almost one year since we touched shore in Panama. Our arrival occurred in December around the Christmas holidays. It's hard to believe a full year has gone by. This year has been exciting in every sense of the word. In review, we decided to make a list of highlights and lowlights this year. In short, here's our list: s The lowlights: spent Christmas at McDonalds from a hotel room in Santiago, eating McFlurries, homeless for a couple of weeks in a strange country, on foot for a month with no transportation, no furniture or clothing but our one suitcase as we awaited our shipment from Honduras, slept on our floor for 2 months, David lost his step-father, Cindy lost a nephew, and Cindy was hospitalized with bronchial pneumonia.,The highlights: our son

COMMUNION CELEBRATION

“It has been a long year filled with joy, successes and personal hardships - all very fulfilling with God’s purposes”

Michael got married, we have hosted 5 construction teams, 3 medical teams, and one church development team (9 total); completed about 1/5 of the construction on a multi-purpose two-story building; attended a missionary conference at Aldersgate UMC, constructed a web site and began neighborhood bible studies and worship services under a tree with good attendance.; began new church plant contacts with great responses,! This year has been full.

We have yet to have a pot luck dinner as we just aren’t sure what we will get for meals, roasted iguana or something else! Our church plant is on schedule and our community based health care program developing well!

The gospels tell us the story of the greatest gift given to humanity, Jesus Christ! His life demonstrated love, sacrifice, grace, and purpose. As disciples of Christ, we are committed to exemplifying that very life. As Wesley’s prayer exhorts: “Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can,” so shall we do!

Thank you to all who have supported our ministry in Panama! Please keep us in your prayers for this upcoming year! We look forward to staying in touch with each of you throughout the year! May each of you have a Merry Christmas holiday and may God’s grace fill you with joy!

Grace & Peace
